

P.G. Department of Psychology, University of Kashmir

The P.G. Department of Psychology actively engages in various research projects that contribute to the field of psychology and address important societal issues.

Comprehensive Technological Framework for Youth Outreach

1

Project Initiation

The project "Development of comprehensive technological framework for holistic youth outreach and engagement in the UT of J&K" was initiated in 2023.

2

Consultant/PI & Co-PI

Prof. Shawkat Ahmad Shah serves as the Chief Consultant, with Sheikh Innayatullah as the Principal Investigator (PI) and Dr. Muhammad Muzamil as the Co-PI.

3

Sponsorship

The project is sponsored by J&K STIC

Women's Mental Health in Kashmir

Project Focus

The study explores "Women Mental Health: Risk and Protective Factors of Psychological Distress among women in Kashmir."

PI

Prof. Touseef Rizvi leads the project as the Principal Investigator (PI).

Sponsorship

The National Commission for Women (NCW) sponsors this important research initiative.

Timeline

The project commenced in 2022, reflecting the department's ongoing commitment to doing research to explore women's mental health issues.

Tribal Children and Delinquency Proneness

Project Overview

This research project explores the "Linkages of Parenting Styles and School Environment with delinquency proneness among tribal children of J&K".

Research Team

Dr. Muhammad Muzamil is the Principal Investigator (PI), with Prof. Shawkat Ahmad Shah as the Co-PI, combining their expertise in this crucial study.

Sponsorship and Timeline

The Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) sponsors this project, which began in 2023, highlighting its relevance in contemporary social science research.